DINING & NIGHTLIFE

JEFF RUBY'S STEAKHOUSE

Jeff Ruby's Steakhouse is high-energy, upscale dining. The menu offers an incomparable selection of the country's best USDA Prime dry-aged steaks, signature salads, fresh sushi, raw bar, and a wine list featuring more than 500 different labels from around the world. The visually stunning architecture of the 325-seat eatery complements River City's tributes to bygone days with a façade reminiscent of Judy Garland's family home in the classic film, Meet Me in St. Louis, and a Victorian-era interior motif that recalls the classic Hello Dolly! Guests can sit in the sushi bar area under a skylight or enjoy the evening on the outdoor patio by a bronze fountain imported from Italy. A piano player elevated on stage behind the marble-topped bar adds to the festive ambiance.

Rated higher than any steakhouses in New York City or Chicago by the prestigious Zagat Survey, Jeff Ruby's restaurants are a sensory tour de force, providing an extraordinary combination of quality menu items and impeccable service in an exclusive, yet comfortable, setting.

THE GREAT FOOD EXPOSITION

Borrowing its name from the historic Louisiana Purchase Exposition of 1904, this 350-seat buffet of global proportions offers an abundant menu of Italian, American, Asian and seafood favorites. Guests will savor unique opportunities to interact with River City's world-class chefs as mouthwatering rotisserie-grilled meats are carved fresh on an authentic Brazilian-style Rodizio Grill and homemade pastries and pies are pulled from an old-fashioned cast iron oven, just like Grandma used.

The décor features an art gallery of nostalgic black and white photos of the World's Fair. Plaid carpets and subtle nautical cues reinforce River City's link to its neighboring waterways, imparting a casual, breezy and inviting atmosphere.

LEWY NINE'S CAFÉ

With a respectful and decidedly playful nod to King Louis IX of France, this irreverent and elegant retro-twist on the classic '50's diner features a more fashionable edge to the traditional diner look, plus a menu of café classics sure to satisfy comfort-food cravings for breakfast, lunch and dinner, seven days a week.

Black alligator-skin counter stools line a unique curved countertop in the 110-seat dining room, complete with traditional vinyl booths, tables and chairs, where guest can indulge in classic cast-iron breakfast skillet, fluffy Belgian waffles and pancakes. Or, enjoy delicious lunch and dinner offerings ranging from homemade soups, "big salads" and hearty sandwiches to traditional spaghetti and meatballs, crispy fish 'n' chips, and chicken pot pie. Featured menu items include 1904 World's Fair favorites, such as meatloaf with mashed potatoes, and Wiener schnitzel.

Good times are on tap at this tribute to Western Europe's classic beer halls, where beers of the world unite in a welcoming, high-energy atmosphere, dominated by a 60-foot long bar. Friends can also gather at a 20-foot long communal table in the center of the 100-seat tavern, which features more than 100 beers by the bottle and 32 on tap, including River City's own 1904 Brewhouse Ale – a custom ale exclusively produced for River City by the brewmasters at Anheuser-Busch. The menu offers an eclectic selection of contemporary bar treats, such as Kobe beef sliders, Pot Roast poppers and Crab fritters, plus beer specialty food items designed to share and pair with complementary ales. Nosh on thick and juicy Prime Rib sandwiches, burgers and steaks, while watching your favorite sports teams on flat-screen TVs or enjoying live entertainment.

International flavors are surrounded by walls covered in hundreds of authentic German beer steins, adding an outrageous, yet elegant, touch to this unique neighborhood hangout open for lunch and dinner five days a week, and late-night dining on weekends.
